

JOE THOMAS (Principal) graduated from Cathedral Day School, Benedictine Military School, and Georgia Southern University. He retired from the Savannah Chatham County Board of Education. After retirement, he returned to the Public School System as Interim Assistant Principal at Shuman Middle School and as School Board Hearing Officer. He graciously accepted the position of Principal at St. Peter the Apostle Catholic School last year. Mr. Thomas enjoys weight training, fishing, and basketball.

KERRY TVRDY (4th Grade) is a New York native. After her family moved south, Mrs. Tvrdy graduated from St. Vincent's Academy, then went on to graduate from Belmont Abbey College, a Benedictine run college located in Belmont, NC, just outside Charlotte. She then received her Masters from Armstrong Atlantic State University in 2011. This will be Kerry's tenth year teaching at St. Peter's. Mrs. Tvrdy is married and she and her husband have three children, one a SPA 5th grader, 1st grader and one entering the new 3 year old program! Kerry is an avid music fan, who enjoys spinning vinyls on the record player and going to concerts.

ANNE MARIE WHIDDON (Kindergarten) is another Savannah native who graduated from Nativity of Our Lord Catholic School and St. Vincent's Academy. Mrs. Whiddon graduated from the University of Georgia with a Bachelor of Science degree in Education. Mrs. Whiddon has been at SPA for 13 years and teaches Kindergarten. Living in a house full of men with her husband, a 14 year old son and 10 year old twin boys, Anne Marie still manages to relax by reading, shopping and having fun with the kids. By the way, the boys attend SPA too!
